

Leader Online

www.akron.com

Akron Area News

- DOWNTOWN AKRON — The Women’s Network’s second Friday Luncheon will take place Dec. 8. Kristi Thomas, founder and president of Lunchology, will share her story of success in a presentation titled “Lunch — It’s Not Just the Mid-Day Meal: 10 Things I’ve Learned From Brown Paper Lunch Bags!”

Lunchology is a nationwide business of paper lunch bags that provide jokes, stories, trivia and messages from home for school-aged children. Participants will learn the 10 things Thomas discovered while starting and building her business that transcend all types of businesses.

The luncheon will take place at 2 Dine 4, located at 440 Grant St., with the entrance off Wheeler Street. Registration will begin at 11:45 a.m., followed by lunch at noon and the presentation at 12:30. To reserve a spot, call (330) 315-7809. Visit www.womensnetworkneohio.com for more information.